Logistics, Program, and Administrative Support Built on Navy-Proven Performance

COMPANY OVERVIEW

JG Integrated Logistics Group, LLC (JGILG) is an SBA-certified Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB) and Veteran-Owned Small Business (VOSB) based in Ventura, California. Founded by a U.S. Navy veteran with logistics, supply chain, and program management leadership experience, JGILG provides integrated logistics, program management, financial, acquisition, and warehouse support services to the Department of Defense (DoD) and other federal agencies. The company is actively pursuing prime, subcontract, and teaming opportunities supporting Department of the Navy and Defense Logistics Agency (DLA) missions.

CORE COMPETENCIES

- Integrated Logistics Support & Supply Chain Management: Logistics planning, material management, inventory control, supply support, procurement support, and lifecycle sustainment for DoD and federal programs.
- Program Management & Administrative Support: Program coordination, administrative operations, documentation, reporting, data tracking, and process management for federal mission support.
- Financial Management & Travel Support: Budget and funds tracking, financial reporting, Defense Travel System (DTS) administration, and travel authorization and voucher support and reconciliation.
- Acquisition & Procurement Support: Acquisition documentation, procurement tracking, contract administration support, government purchase card administration, and Military Standard Requisitioning and Issue Procedure (MILSTRIP) related supply support.
- Warehouse, Inventory & Distribution Support: Receiving, inventory accountability, material handling, warehousing, shipping, asset management, and distribution operations supporting government missions.

DIFFERENTIATORS

- Dual SBA Certification: SDVOSB and VOSB certified, qualifying JGILG for sole-source and set-aside federal contract awards under both socio-economic categories.
- Founder-Led Execution: Direct owner oversight and responsive contract management provides customers with continuity, accountability, and a single point of responsibility.
- Cross-Functional Readiness: A single point of contact spanning all core competency areas, reducing coordination burden on program and contracting offices.
- Scalable Staffing Model: Recruits and onboards qualified personnel to match awarded contract scope and workload, keeping overhead aligned to mission requirements.

FOUNDER & KEY PERSONNEL EXPERIENCE

In prior U.S. Navy service, JGILG's founder coordinated transportation of approximately $60M in equipment for major military exercises and implemented procurement controls that improved supply effectiveness by approximately 20%.

JGILG is a newly established company and has not yet completed a contract under its own name. The experience above reflects the founder's prior individual U.S. Navy service and is presented as leadership qualification, not as JGILG corporate past performance.
